

MESSAGE FROM THE MAESTRO

Those who have experienced recent Warminster Symphony Orchestra concerts understand why so many people continue to attend year after year.

We offer great music selections performed by a superb orchestra, incredible soloists, very reasonable ticket prices, and easy, free parking. The beautiful, 1900-seat auditorium offers comfortable seating, and wonderful acoustics — all of which contributes to the best music experience in the area.

This brochure has information about our awesome 57th season-opening concert, our extremely popular holiday concert, our intriguing March program, and our blockbuster final concert in May.

With a great lineup of guest artists and varied programs, our season is destined to both thrill and tug at your heartstrings. I encourage you to share this brochure with your friends and family and take advantage of the substantial discounts offered for season subscribers.

Ciao, and I hope to see you at the concerts!

2023 – 2024 Season

Our 57th season of presenting great music & renowned soloists...close to home!

OCTOBER 28, 2023

“From Liszt to Gershwin”

We explore the similarities and connections between the music of two “rock stars” of their generations. Franz Liszt’s Les Preludes and 2nd Piano Concerto, and George Gershwin’s An American in Paris and Rhapsody in Blue, with our piano soloist, Clipper Erickson, will move and dazzle you! Clippererickson.com

Tickets at the door: $30

DECEMBER 2, 2023

“A Heartwarming Holiday”

Our holiday concert will have all the magical elements you’ve come to expect and more – high energy, familiar classics, and lots of holiday warmth! Young Artist Children’s Division winner, Maxwell Brown, performs Sarasate’s showpiece for violin, Introduction and Tarantella.

Tickets at the door: $25

JANUARY 27, 2024

Annual Pops Gala Fundraiser Concert*

Held at Spring Mill Manor, Iuyland, PA.

MARCH 23, 2024

“March Magic”

Magical musical tales and symphonic marches are sure to delight you with a program that includes The Sorcerer’s Apprentice, Overture to the Magic Flute, Crown Imperial March (think King Charles’s coronation) .... and Young Artist Youth Division winner, Jiaray Shi, performs the first movement of Prokofiev’s Violin Concerto No. 2.

Tickets at the door: $25

MAY 18, 2024

“Roman Holiday”

Favorite Italian arias and songs sung by soprano, Holly Gash, and baritone, John Tenaglia; and Respighi’s blockbuster orchestral work The Pines of Rome will make for an unforgettable evening of beautiful music.

Tickets at the door: $30

NEW! – Based on our audience feedback, subscription concerts will begin at 7:30 p.m.
